CONGRESS BUILDING CORP. COMPLETES EASTON, MA ASSISTED LIVING PROJECT

EASTON, MA – Congress Building Corp., a full service construction management firm headquartered in Peabody, Massachusetts, recently completed construction of The Residence at Five Corners, a senior housing community located in Easton, Massachusetts.

The 84-unit Assisted Living, Independent Living and Memory Care residence is located at 678 Depot Street in the heart of Easton at Five Corners.

The community offers residents a broad spectrum of services and amenities including spacious apartments with kitchenettes, gourmet dining facilities, common areas for family gatherings, an exercise and physical therapy facility, onsite barber and beauty salon, computer center and media area, outdoor sitting and walking areas, scheduled transportation services and 24-hour security.

The Residence’s Memory Care neighborhood features private and semi-private apartments, multiple common areas, life skills station, state-of-the-art security system and a secured courtyard for walking and relaxation. The Reflections Memory Care program will engage residents with early stage Alzheimer’s disease and other memory impairments in meaningful, therapeutic activities focused on their strengths and capabilities.

The Residence at Five Corners is owned and operated by LCB Senior Living, LLC of Norwood, Massachusetts and was designed by The Architectural Team of Chelsea, Massachusetts.

“We are proud of the work we have accomplished with valued repeat client LCB, and the Architectural Team. We are highly appreciative of this ongoing relationship. The Residence at Five Corners in Easton is a unique design, and a project that the entire team can be proud of. We wish LCB continued success as they open yet another quality project in a quality community. We’d also like to thank the town of Easton, MA for their support and cooperation through the construction process; we are appreciative of their efforts.” noted William A. Nicholson, Congress CEO.
